

Everyday is about living.

Your care is your choice.

As a patient of Wilshire Hospice, you have a choice in the type of care you wish to receive. We are the experts in care; you are the expert of your life.

What does that care look like? It's designed to be specific to your needs and to do everything possible to enhance your quality of life. Wilshire Hospice provides patients and their families with a dedicated and skilled care team of medical professionals, therapists, musicians, social workers, counselors and volunteers.

Here for you and your family

The end of life should be honored and celebrated as much as the beginning of life. How do we do that at Wilshire Hospice? Each moment matters; so our vision is to provide you and your family with comprehensive, compassionate care that brings relief from the moment of diagnosis. You're supported by our team, with expert medical care, pain management, and emotional and spiritual support designed for you and provided in your home, hospital or facility.

You are not your diagnosis. Let us help you and your family continue living every day before the last one.
